

Special Bible Study Opportunity

“Living in Repentance and Faith”

Dr. James Nestingen

Professor of Church History, Luther Seminary (Retired)
Professor, Lutheran Institute of Theology

May 16-17, 2008

Los Altos Lutheran Church, Los Altos, CA

Dr. James Nestingen has served as a parish Pastor in Oregon and Ontario, was an editor at Augsburg Publishing House, and taught at Luther Seminary from 1976-2008 as the Professor of Church History. His specialty is Luther and the Lutheran Confessions. He has published several books, including “Martin Luther: A Life”, and written many articles for church magazines and scholarly journals. At Luther Seminary he became a beloved foundation stone for many Lutheran Pastors and is widely recognized as an exciting, scripturally sound, and delightful lecturer on the biblical foundations of Lutheranism. He retired from Luther in 2007 and is now intimately involved in the new Lutheran Institute of Theology. Don't miss this great opportunity!
